Enter the worlds of CREATION, America's convention for fans of comic books, Dr. Who and science fiction media.

Our first convention was held over 14 years ago in New York City and now CREATION travels all around the country. But no CREATION CONVENTION is as exciting and festive as those held here, in our home base, the New York area.

We're extending a warm invitation to you to join us for our very next weekend extravaganza, this MARCH 16 and 17th at the Roosevelt Hotel, 45th and Madison Avenue in Manhattan. If you're a comic book, Dr. Who and/or science fiction media fan you won't want to miss it because we're loading the two days of the convention with top name guest stars, super events and special surprises. The CREATION CONVENTION opens 11 AM each day and will run until 8 PM daily. Here's some of what we've got set:
